Corporate Expense Reimbursement Policy

Human Resources Department | Document ref: HR-POL-EXP-004 | Effective: January 1, 2026 | Version 3.2

Article 1 — Purpose and Scope

This policy defines the rules governing the reimbursement of business-related expenses incurred by employees in the course of their professional duties. It applies to all full-time and part-time employees, as well as contractors explicitly covered under a service agreement referencing this policy. Expenses incurred for personal purposes are not eligible for reimbursement under any circumstances.

Article 2 — General Principles

All expenses must be reasonable, necessary for business purposes, and supported by original itemized receipts. Employees are expected to exercise the same level of care in incurring expenses as they would if spending their own personal funds. Expense reports must be submitted within 30 calendar days of the expense being incurred. Reports submitted after this period may be rejected at the sole discretion of the Finance department.

Article 3 — Meal Allowances

Meal expenses incurred during business travel or client meetings are reimbursed up to the following daily caps, inclusive of taxes and gratuity:

Meal	Domestic travel (EUR)	International travel (EUR)
Breakfast	15	20
Lunch	25	35
Dinner	40	55
Daily maximum	80	110

Alcoholic beverages are reimbursable only in the context of client entertainment, up to a maximum of two units per person, and must be itemized separately on the expense report.

Article 4 — Transportation Expenses

4.1 Air and Rail Travel

Employees must book economy class for flights under 6 hours and rail travel in standard (second) class for domestic journeys. Business class air travel may be approved in advance by a Director-level manager for flights exceeding 6 hours in duration. First class is not reimbursable under any circumstances, regardless of approval level.

4.2 Personal Vehicle Use

Employees using a personal vehicle for business travel are reimbursed at a rate of EUR 0.35 per kilometer, covering fuel, wear, and insurance. A mileage log indicating origin, destination, purpose, and distance must be attached to the expense report. Parking and toll fees are reimbursed separately upon presentation of receipts.

4.3 Ride-Hailing and Taxis

Taxi and ride-hailing services (e.g., Uber, Bolt) are reimbursable for business travel when public transportation is impractical, unavailable, or unsafe (for example, late-night travel after 10:00 PM). Receipts must clearly show the pickup and drop-off locations.

Article 5 — Accommodation

Hotel accommodation is reimbursed up to EUR 150 per night for domestic travel and EUR 220 per night for international travel, inclusive of taxes. Employees should book 3-star or equivalent business-standard hotels. Any amount exceeding these caps requires prior written approval from the employee's manager and must be justified (e.g., no lower-cost lodging available within a reasonable distance of the business venue).

Article 6 — Monthly Expense Allowance

Each employee is entitled to a monthly expense allowance of EUR 850, covering eligible business-related costs as defined in this policy. This allowance is submitted and processed through the internal Expense Management System, accompanied by scanned copies of all original receipts. Reimbursement is processed within 15 business days following submission, via the employee's standard payroll bank account.

Article 7 — Non-Reimbursable Expenses

The following expenses are explicitly excluded from reimbursement:

- Personal entertainment, including movies, spa services, and minibar consumption
- Traffic fines, parking tickets, and other penalties incurred during business travel
- Expenses for a spouse, partner, or family member accompanying the employee
- Loss or theft of personal belongings, cash, or personal electronic devices
- First-class air travel and luxury or 5-star accommodation without prior written exception
- Any expense lacking a valid, itemized receipt

Article 8 — Non-Compliance

Submission of fraudulent, inflated, or knowingly non-compliant expense claims constitutes a breach of company policy and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, in accordance with the applicable disciplinary procedure. Repeated late submissions without justification may result in a temporary suspension of expense advance privileges.

For questions regarding this policy, contact the HR Business Partner team at hr-expenses@company.example or refer to the Expense Management System user guide on the internal HR portal.